THE SCHENK INFELICITIES.

In a room in the tower of the Wheeling, W. Va., jail, fitted up with a rocking chair and quilts from her own palatial home, Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk remained a prisoner yesterday without the privilege of bail, awaiting developments in the illness of her husband, John O. Schenk, a millionaire pork packer.

The arraignment of Mrs. Schenk on charges that she attempted to poison her husband by putting arsenic in his food and drinking water will be delayed pending the outcome of his sickness.

Laura Farnsworth Schenk is the daughter of a poor family in Marietta, Ohio. She went to Wheeling 23 years ago and found employment as a domestic. She worked as such in several homes in Wheeling until, 10 years later, Mr. Schenk, who was then 27 years old and wealthy, took her to his palatial home on Wheeling Island, in the Ohio river, as his wife. She is a blond, of ruddy complexion and buxom form. At the island home she has entertained liberally and she and her husband were very fond of motoring. Only recently he made her a present of a fine touring car.

They have two children—Virginia, aged 12, and Robert, aged 7 years—who have been placed in the care of relatives and are kept in ignorance of the charges against their mother.

After the arrest of the woman stories of marital infidelity and of race escapades indulged in by Mrs. Schenk began to crop out. It was said that Mrs. Schenk had shown a marked partiality for various men, one of them a musician, and that she had taken another, who is prominent in Wheeling, to Atlantic City lavishing money on him. As motives for wishing to get her husband out of the way a species of money madness and a desire to shine in society are mentioned.

Mr. Schenk, it is said, was very liberal toward his wife and gave her many costly things, but could not be gotten out of the plain, simple ways of a German who had risen to great wealth from small beginnings.

The couple, it is asserted, had frequent quarrels, usually over Mrs. Schenk's "carrying on" with men, and in this connection it is intimated that when the family chauffeur is put on the stand he will testify concerning some lively episodes.

Mrs. Schenk, it is stated, seemed to have an insatiable desire to spend money and was constantly making greater demands upon her husband's purse. Chauffeur after chauffeur was discharged by the husband because of the wife's peculiarities, it is alleged.

According to all accounts the affair has all the elements of a scandal of the first magnitude, and some startling developments are looked for.

ALLEGED BLACK HAND LETTERS

Into the Hungarian banking and exchange office of Markell & Irvoritz, 374 Alexander avenue, New York, there stepped yesterday morning a swarthy and dusky young man, about 23 years old. Placing three letters on the desk of the manager, Hugo Kardos, he announced:

"I want two of these letters translated into English. You needn't translate the third. I'll come for them at 6 o'clock."

Then he hurried out.

Kardos saw that two of the letters were addressed to "Mr. Rockefeller."

The third was addressed to the "Manager of Markell & Irvoritz." All were written in Hungarian. The letter to himself, Kardos said, read:

"Inclosed find two letters which I'd like to have translated into English. If you don't do this for me, I'm going to kill you. If you have me arrested it makes no difference, since my association is very big and will get you."

"F. K." Kardos said, stand for "Fekede Kex," the Hungarian for "blackhand."

This was the first letter to Mr. Rockefeller, Kardos said:

"I have been sent by the anarchistic society and the Black Hand to demand $50,000 from you, and should you refuse to pay, the society that amount, we will kill you. Fifty thousand dollars, that does not amount to much, and if you refuse to pay it you will be killed. We have other people who contribute weekly, monthly and half-yearly, but we do not want it this way from you. We want an immediate payment from you."

"We will engage a man on the street to go to your house and get the money. Put it in a box and seal it, and give it to the man. He won't know what's in the box. We will send you another letter telling you what time the man will come."

The second letter to Mr. Rockefeller, similarly signed, read:

"You, undoubtedly received our first letter. Are you ready to give the $50,000? We will send another letter telling you the day and time the man will come to your house. Don't forget."

Kardos telephoned to police head-

GOLDSBORO

HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Effa A. Smith, "but gave me no relief."

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms."

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.

quarters, and detectives were sent to the banking house. They waited in an ante room until 3 o'clock, when the young man reappeared, and asked in broken English whether the letters had been translated. The detectives rushed out and arrested him.

At the detective bureau the prisoner said he was Peter Lillyon, a laborer, of 637 east Thirtieth street. He refused to talk about the letters, and was locked up on a charge of attempted blackmail.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or sniffing. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of asthma.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

SUICIDE OF A BANKER.

D. F. M. Schas, president of the Continental Savings Bank of Memphis, Tenn., and a widely known financier, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself in the head. The death of Mr. Schas was attended with sensational incidents. He repaired to the main pavilion of Overton Park about noon yesterday and swallowed poison. The banker then attempted to kill himself by plunging a knife into his throat. He then fired a pistol ball through his head, dying instantly. His friends believe he was mentally unbalanced. The Continental Savings Bank immediately closed its doors when the news of Mr. Schas' tragic death became public. Officials say that the dead president's accounts are in good condition.
